

Robert Wright, Jr.

Robert Wright, Jr., (U.S. Air Force Colonel, retired) is the Senior Vice President of Integral Systems' Military and Intelligence Group. Before assuming his current role, Colonel Wright served as Commander of the Space Innovation & Development Center at Schriever AFB, CO. This facility is the centerpiece of the Air Force's effort to integrate space into its daily operations. His long career in space and communications includes commanding two communications squadrons and a communications group, including a one-year deployed tour supporting Operation Southern Watch. He held several key staff positions, including Executive Officer to the Director, National Reconnaissance Office, as well as aide-de-camp and Executive Officer to the Commander, United States Central Command. Colonel Wright has earned numerous awards and decorations including the Legion of Merit, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal with one oak leaf cluster, and the Air Force Commendation Medal. He holds a BS from the U.S. Air Force Academy and an MS in Systems Management from the University of Southern California.

BIOGRAPHY

